JAPANESE CANADIAN CULTURAL CENTRE

NORTH YORK, ON

FESTIVAL OF SAKE

Welcome “ようこそ”

The Sake Institute of Ontario (SIO) is honoured to present the 11th Edition of Kampai Toronto – Festival of Sake, the largest sake tasting festival in Canada. We invite you to this one-of-a-kind event hosted at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre (JCCC) to immerse yourself in this awesome display of Japanese culture.

The 2023 edition now features over 230 drinks & beverages (including fruit liqueurs, cocktails and shochu) from over 60 producers in Japan, Canada & the US.

All guests are encouraged to interact with the many sake vendors and professionals present, many whom have traveled very long distances to join us to represent some of the top sake producers in the world. To pair with these great sakes we once again welcome half a dozen local restaurants and food vendors to provide delicious Japanese and Asian inspired appetizer foods.

Our major sponsor the Japanese External Trade Organization (JETRO) will also be on hand providing guests with a complimentary taste of mouthwatering Japanese seafood.

VIP Ticket holders as custom will have early access to the evening session in the main Kobayashi Hall filled with all the sake and select food vendors and as a VIP Bonus the SIO has procured a delicious set of handmade mochi and a generous gift from our major corporate sponsor Shiseido Canada.

Patrons are encouraged to check out the Shokokai Court which will feature our sponsors, Japanese artisans & crafts and some additional food vendors.

The SIO is a not-for-profit trade association comprised of the major Ontario sake agents and the local sake producer in Toronto. We strive to share our passion for this delicious drink to Ontarians and promote the awareness, education and availability of sake in this market.

We ask that you enjoy this great event responsibly. Please pace your night, with both food and beverages and find water stations that are located throughout the event space. We feel very privileged to host you again for another event of great sake, food & company.

Glossary of Key Sake Terms

What's the correct pronunciation of SAKE?
It's more like Sah-keh, NOT Saa-ki

SAKE GRADES

Futsu – Table sake. No milling constraints. Table rice is often used and the addition of distilled alcohol to make it more accessible.

Honjozo – Rice polished down to a minimum of 70% and containing some brewer's alcohol. Fragrant and lighter bodied than Junmai.

Junmai – Pure rice sake (no alcohol added). Rice can be milled to any percentage (usually to 70%) so long as it is listed on the label. Typically full-bodied with pronounced acidity.

Ginjo – Rice that has been milled down to 60% of its original size and fermented at colder temperatures. Elegant, refined, and aromatic.

Daiginjo – Rice that has been milled down to less than 50% of its original size; the pinnacle of the sake brewer's craft. Typically lighter, more fragrant, and fruitier than most Ginjos.

SAKE STYLES

Genshu – Undiluted sake. Typically bold with a higher alcohol content.

Karakuchi – Dry sake.

Koshu – Aged sake.

Nama – Unpasteurized sake, fruity.

Nigori – Roughly filtered or 'cloudy' sake. Textured and creamy on the palate.

Muroka – Most sake is charcoal filtered. Muroka means it has not undergone charcoal filtering.

Tokubetsu – 'Special' sake. Brewers typically use this to make a Tokubetsu Honjozo or Tokubetsu Junmai. Usually there is a higher milling rate, or a special process is used to make it.

ADDITIONAL TERMS

Arabashiri – The first press of a batch of sake.

Atsukan – Hot sake.

Kura – Sake brewery, short for Sakagura.

Nihonshu – Literally, 'Japanese alcohol'. This is a term used to differentiate sake from other alcoholic beverages.

Seimai Buai – Milling rate of the rice used to make sake. This is represented as a percentage. The value indicated is what is left.

Shiboritate – Freshly pressed, youthful sake.

Shinpaku – The white starch core of sake rice.

Toji – Master sake brewer.
